REFINED FOR SOUTHERN MOTORS

Science Serves the South!

LORECO
GASOLINE and MOTOR OIL

The tourist finds that science is ahead of him in the South with one gasoline and one motor oil that really fit Southern driving conditions. He finds in LORECO Motor Fuel distinctly higher anti-knock qualities, better mileage and all-around sweeter performance than he is accustomed to enjoy. He literally FEELS the cushioning effect of LORECO Motor Oil in his high speed, high compression machine. Moreover, this LORECO Motor Oil stays in his crank case and stays clean. Yet it costs only 25c the quart!

Now and then you find a man living right here in the South who has not yet learned that LORECO Products are produced, refined and sold here exclusively, with exact scientific regard for the driving conditions that obtain in our Southern country. This is that man's invitation to use LORECO to lower his annual garage bill and materially increase his pleasure of driving. And there is no time like TODAY!

ACME TIRES

Just as medical science has conquered certain dread diseases with vaccines, commercial science has discovered and is using in ACME Tires certain expensive anti-oxidants that guarantee long life and great mileage under Southern driving conditions.

THEIR'S TIME
Life is never so short
But there's time for a song
To hearten the hours as They hurry along
Through the dark and the day
It's brave music can rise
No matter how swiftly
Each winged second flies.

Life is never so short
But there's time for a deed
Of courtesy gentle,
Of kindness in need;
Along the thronged highway
Where multitudes press,
Each moment brings chances
To help and to bless.

On Thursday afternoon, at the home of Miss Maggie Bell on South Main Street, with Mesdames J. A. Henry, Mrs. Haynes and James L. Jamison as associate hostesses, the Pat Cleburn Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy closed their Chapter activities until September 3. The hospitable Bell home was attractive with vases and bouquets of lovely sweet peas, snap dragons and other garden flowers. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. R. T. White, and following the singing of the U. D. C. hymn, and the Lord's prayer in concert, the roll was called, and responses were interesting items and facts about the state of Arkansas and the life of Jefferson Davis. At this time, the president, for a report of the various committees and announced the nominating and year book committees. Two outstanding features of the business period, was the presentation of the Cross of Military Service, bestowed by the Daughters of the Confederacy upon lineal Confederate descendants in the active service of the United States army during the period of the World War, to Thomas Massey Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Boyd, formerly of this city, now of Corpus Christi, Texas. In the absence of Captain Boyd, the medal was presented to his delivery, Mrs. R. Henry, Sr., for delivery. Another interesting feature of the business of a large Confederate flag, said to have been made from the muslin used for the veiling of the Shiloh monument. This flag was given to the chapter by Mrs. W. W. Duckett, in memory of Mrs. C. A. Forney Smith, the founder of the Pat Cleburn chapter. Mrs. Mark Smyth presented a most interesting and entertaining program including a paper on the life of Jefferson Davis by Mrs. Charles Haynes, and a talk on interesting items about Arkansas and suggestions for reference books relating to the state that are to be placed in the Hope library in the near future. Beautiful piano and vocal music was rendered by Miss Mary Bell Marshall and Miss Florence Risdon.

had told him "I'll see you in a day or two."

Brown said he saw Bell three or four times and said he was unable to collect any money for his part in the blasting.

Bell Denies Charges
Bell insisted that he had no part in the blasting. He said he believed he was in Corpus Christi at the time of the crime. This contradicted the statement of Brown.

The investigation which led to the arrest of Brown and Bell continued for months before the men were arrested. Statements made by Brown while he was intoxicated in Texarkana led to his arrest, officers said.

Jim Bearden, former Hempstead county sheriff, was appointed by the Arkansas highway department to push the investigation. He was assisted by Sheriff Walter Harris, the sheriff of Lafayette county, members of the state highway patrol, Alford, Deputy Prosecutor H. M. Barney, Warden Todhunter of the Arkansas penitentiary, and others.

Two Prescott men, Dr. A. W. Hudson, dentist, and Dan Pittman, well known Nevada county hardware store proprietor, were visiting Rotarians.

Dr. Hudson, introduced by R. L. Gosnell, spoke on pre-natal nutrition and special diets aimed to build better teeth from childhood.

C. C. Spraggins, president-elect of the Hope club, reported on the recent district conference of Rotary at Hot Springs.

Earl Brannan, director of publicity for the Agricultural and Mechanical schools of the state, and a Rotarian from Monticello, spoke on the value of an upright business man during the present depression. "Roger Babson, famous statistician, tells us," said Mr. Brannan, "that business today is not suffering from any fundamental fault—but is suffering from a sudden lack of individual integrity. We need to get that confidence back again."

Clerk Wins on Derby Ticket But Loses Job

HAYANT, Eng.—(P)—Harry Wheeler, a grocery clerk, won a $500 prize in the derby sweepstakes, but lost the job he held for 42 years.

He bought a ticket under the pseudonym of "Jumbo" and gave the address of his employer, G. R. Standing, grocer, magistrate and lay preacher.

When Standing, a strong opponent of gambling, heard of the incident, he promptly discharged Wheeler, fearing the use of the address would compromise him.

Christopher, Ill., has created an ordinance against causing radio interference, providing fines of from $1 to $10 for offenders.

Golf Ball Drops in Cup Without Touching Green

PADUCAH, Ky.—(P)—Eagles have been made in Paducah before, and a hole in one is not unheard of, but Gladstone Bruns, 1930 Paducah country club golf champion, set a new record when he cupped his ball without its touching the green.

Playing a par four, 350 yard hole with a foursome, Bruns connected with a 200 yard drive. His second shot was a mangle approach, high and straight.

Freckles and His Friends By Blosser

Federal Program to Aid Farmer Advocated

MOULTRIE, Ga. (AP)—A 10-year federal program to aid the farmer was advocated by William D. Anderson, Macon, Ga., cotton manufacturer, in a speech prepared for delivery Tuesday at a joint meeting of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs here in connection with celebration of National Cotton Week.

"The great mass of farmers," Anderson said, "are inefficient in their methods and produce at too high a cost. They haven't learned the lesson that others have learned, that the unit of production is the important thing, that the cost of production and not alone the selling price should be given first consideration."

"I think that the United States should inaugurate and consistently foster a 10-year plan for the American farmer. I believe it will take that long to educate the farmer to the point where he is in position to compete with others engaged in his own line of business and to hold his place in the economic structure of the nation, in competition with those who engage in other lines of activity."

HAVE YOU THIS IN YOUR HOME?

Black-Draught "Just Splendid," Says Texas Mother—Gives It To Her Children.

"I have found Black-Draught to be just splendid for my children when they have colds or biliousness," writes Mrs. W. A. Butcher, of 825 East Eleventh Street, Dallas, Texas.

"When they are fretful and feeling bad, I give them a few small doses of Black-Draught, and soon they are out, playing and feeling fine."

"I remember that my father gave me Black-Draught when I was a child, and it helped me so much when I had a headache or a bad taste in the mouth."

Mrs. Thomas Peden, R.F.D. 2, Pulaski, Tenn., agrees with the Texas lady quoted above. "When I get bilious," writes Mrs. Peden, "I frequently have dull, sick headaches. Nothing helps me like Black-Draught. I find that if I take it at night, the next day I am all right again."

"My husband thinks Black-Draught is a fine medicine and he takes it. I can recommend it to mothers, in the home, for I have found it of great benefit to mine."

Holland Moves to Halt Anti-Religion Campaign

THE HAGUE (AP)—An anti-religion campaign in Holland has reached such proportions that the government is taking action.

A bill has been introduced in the second chamber of the states general providing punishment for anyone found guilty of uttering contemptuous blasphemy in a public place, or of exhibiting blasphemous writings or emblems.

Weather Man to Prepare Charts While in Plane

SAN DIEGO, Cal. (AP)—Dean Blake will fly with the army's air forces in their maneuvers this spring as the weather man. He will leave here in a bomber for a 6,000-mile air trip to the east and return.

It will be the first time a weather man has accompanied Uncle Sam's fighting pilots. His duties will be to receive and disseminate weather information while the air fleet is in flight, as well as when the army pilots are at the fields ready to take off.

A radio operator will be in the ship to supply weather data from ground stations, and Blake will prepare weather charts while on the wing. He has been with the San Diego weather bureau 29 years.

Return to Silo Advised

DURHAM, N. H. (AP)—Earl P. Robinson of the University of New Hampshire has advised greater legume acreage and a return to the silo as a palliative for dairy ills. He says present panic prices for dairy products mean disaster to New England dairymen who continue to buy grain and depend on poor, late-cut native hay. He suggests corn for silage.

Gold Prospectors Invade Savages' Land By Plane

RABAU, New Guinea (AP)—Using a 1800 range armored airplane, Captain Penland, one of Australia's leading aviators is hunting gold in the unexplored interior of New Guinea.

In the rugged interior it is doubtful whether a plane can be landed successfully, but the syndicate is counting on Penland's skill and courage to make the venture a success.

He is accompanied by two experienced gold "fossickers." The search will be conducted in country inhabited by fiercely hostile natives.

Tennessee to Sell Wool Through Farm Board

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Tennessee's wool crop of 1931 will again be sold through the Federal Farm Board.

The state wool growers' association, made up of over 1,000 farmers in 40 counties, has reported a unanimous decision to this effect to A. L. Jordan, extension marketing specialist at the University of Tennessee.

Wool will be assembled in carlots for shipment at 24 shipping points. The association sold 197,538 pounds of wool last year, and it is believed that more than 200,000 pounds will be handled this season.

Peasants Forego Tobacco

FELITERIA, Portugal (AP)—Thirty peasants have started a crusade against smoking because low prices of farm produce, coupled with unemployment, force them to reduce living costs.
